

MARLON BAILEY

187-04 Ridgedale Street Springfield Garden Queens, New York 11413
(718) 314-6685 | marlonvbailey@gmail.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Abigail Adams (P.S.131Q), Queens, New York

Teachers' Assistant, April 1999 – present

- Assists lead teacher in creating and teaching lesson plans for students in K-5
- Tutor ESL students, students with learning disabilities and behavioral problems from K-8
- Founded the Jamaican Knights Chess club to allow students to participate in the Chess-In-The-Schools program and tournaments
- Teach Poetry and Song Writing for the Citizen Schools afterschool Program

EDUCATION

Queens College of the City University of New York

Bachelor of Science Degree in Political Science, December 2019

GPA: 3.04

Coursework

Seminar in Law and Politics, Data and Society, Social Movement and Political Power, American Political Thought, American Legislative Process, Research Skills in Political Science, Urban Politics, American Politics and Government, Comparative Politics

CLUBS & ACTIVITIES

Vice President, Evening and Weekend Student Network

Queen's College, 2018-Present

- Advocate for accommodations available for day students to be provided also for evening and weekend students
- Argue for changes to Queens College Shuttle bus services, such as better-defined schedules and accessibility for disabled students
- Advocated successfully to extend campus library hours

Model Senator, CUNY Model Senate Program

Queen's College, 2019

- Researched issues affecting constituents in New York state and debated on their behalf

Researcher, CUNY SOMOS Summer Internship

Queen's College, 2019

- Researched ethnographical problems that New Yorker City communities are facing
- Interviewed council members and developed a framework for continued study

CERTIFICATIONS

Teacher Certifications

- Liberal Arts and Sciences Test
- NYSTCE Elementary Assessment of Teaching Skill-Written Test
- Content Specialty Test (Technology Education 077)